TUM THINK TANK

Join the YQSS International Cohort 2025!

As the International Year of Quantum Technologies is coming up, we are launching the first international cohort of the YQSS! During the next year, we want to build a community of young people, interested in changing their future and the future of Quantum Technologies for the better.

What do you get?

- Monthly Digital Meet-Ups (taking place each month in different time zones)
- Access/Invitation to an international Summer School on Quantum Technology (we will try to hand out as many travel scholarships as possible)
- Be part of the first strategic briefing completely drafted by young scholars!
- Collaborate with the Network of Network of Centers exploring future opportunities for Quantum Technologies in the majority world.
